Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Great habits are the foundation for enduring success of every kind. There is one habit that stands above the rest, the Great Communicator Habit. This habit provides the jet-fuel, lights the fire in your rocket, and ensures it stays aflame until you reach your desired destination. Habitually Great Communication: Master The Power of Your Words goes beyond simply defining what you want and articulating that vision to others. This book will give you clarity, understanding, and a roadmap for accomplishment, contentment, and joy. It will call on you to strengthen your courage muscle, while helping you fess up to and eliminate the life diminishing attitudes, beliefs, and habits that steer you away from success. Self-defeating vocal styles will be a thing of the past, and your relationships with everyone-yourself included-will be tremendously enhanced. The inner silence left by dropping negative language can then be filled with inspiring language buoyed by an enthusiastic sense of can-do spirit. As you strengthen your Great Communicator Habit, you will find yourself catapulted to a whole new level of success and become an inspiring role model for others. When you learn the 22 principles revealed in these pages you will find yourself scaling new peaks of accomplishment that until today you only dreamed of!.
