Tiger Romeo, United Kingdom, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Casa Blanka, 10 Buckingham Mews, London S.W.1 Wednesday June 3, 2015 10 WEEKS AFTER THE KILLINGS In the spare bedroom of her London house, connected to her kidney dialysis machine, Blanka slept uneasily. Before hooking up to the machine she had studied, as she too often did, the photograph of her and her mother in Rome, taken when she was twenty-one and Kitty was thirty-six. Just setting aside the picture and turning on the machine, Blanka let her eyes rest on Houston s belongings, which were beside the bed. In a way, knowing that Houston was staying with her now, even if only for a short while, helped Blanka as she re-entered the terrifying world of her dreams. What made her dreams so disturbing was their vividness, the relentless intensity, combined with her inability to act as she wanted to in them. She became the helpless witness to horrible deeds and she could do nothing to stop them. Being unable to act went against everything in Blanka s nature. And in recent months it seemed as if the helplessness of her dreams had entered into her real life. That night she did not have the Auschwitz dream, but she had another recurring dream that was almost as unnerving because she felt she were re-enacting parts of her own life. It began with the image of her mother plummeting from a castle window into a river. She recognized the building and the river - Castle Sant-Angelo, the Vatican Holy Inquisition Headquarters in Rome and the River Tiber. It was as if her mother was falling and she was seeing it through a telescope. Then she would hear voices and she knew they were...
