BONKERS: A MEMOIR

iUniverse, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .BONKERS consists of the memories that one Bari Ghabaei has for a period of his mischievous young adult life when he makes wrong decisions, and is consequentially labeled mentally imbalanced and even potentially dangerous by misdiagnosing doctors and court officials who assign him to seek mandated professional help, and take medications against his freedom and free will. After many jail and institution overnight stays, Bari acquiesces with what the law requires, yet refuses to accept in his soul this stamped label upon his forehead and refuses to accept what the flawed society wishes to construct for his future. Though Bari does feel utter psychosis creeping on his tail, he refuses to give into the temptation of letting go into insanity, and simply calls his situation and himself as being Bonkers....
