AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . How would you react if you lost your scratch pad that was returned by a stranger with this entry? -Just last week, lying next to me was a dead woman whose throat I d just slashed. I was callously lingering in a pool of her blood. Whores are undeserving; they re as worthless as my mother was. She too was a whore who d bequeathed me with twelve bad-ass siblings with different baby daddies. I had to vie for every morsel of affection and attention. She eventually abandoned all of us, and I fell into the throes of remorse and depression, all alone in that gloomy castle-like orphanage. All the siblings were separated. And it wasn t until recently that I d come in contact with one of them. He d found me through the Internet, and I d just arrived in London a week ago to reunite with him. Consequently, it is a stretch for me to share anything--particularly my heart. I laid there beside this young creature of about twenty-five years my junior, examining the gash in her throat I d so skillfully crafted like a surgeon. I d slashed it slowly and deeply as she yelped for mercy and drew her last breath. The sex was lewd and brutal; I d taken my sweet time. Earlier, I had punched her in her face, disfiguring her gravely. She howled in agony and terror. When she attempted to escape, I snatched her by her amber-streaked tresses as she squirmed and resisted me. An ample tract of weave dislodged from her scalp. Incensed, I tossed her roughly on the bed and proceeded to brutalize her as she begged for mercy that merely...
