Tate Publishing & Enterprises. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 236 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.1in. x 0.5in. If America goes down the tubes, it will be because voters send their Child into the voting booth to vote Parents into political office while their rational Adult sits out in the car. In The Child in the Voting Booth, Dr. Ray Smith attempts to educate the Adult in voters in hopes their rational Adult will come in and take charge. In clear and often humorous language, the author gives numerous examples of the disasters that follow when a government assumes Parental control of its citizens morality or of a nations economy. The Prohibition amendment ended up with more Americans of every sex and age drinking than ever before. The present war on drugs has set off an historical drug orgy clear across America. Former laws against men touching each other yielded 4 times more men in bed together. Laws limiting a womans decisions regarding her uterus, kill 125 times more women per unit termination. The lesson is that all governmentally Parented moral misbehavior continues, and gets worse, until the government Parenting stops. When governments try to Parent the economy by running and controlling it, the economy always goes straight to hell, according to Smith. The Child in the Voting Booth is often funny, frequently alarming, and always sobering. As an added bonus Dr. Smith shares with you what your neighbors are doing in the bedroom. . . and in the alley out behind the house. Dr. Smith is a licensed psychologist who formerly taught Transactional Analysis to hundreds of supervisory and management level personnel in the District of Columbia Government. He also practiced Transactional Analytical therapy with numerous psychotherapy groups in the Districts Mental Health Administration. After receiving his Ph. D. in physiological...
