Condition: New. Belknap Press of Harvard University Press, Cambridge (Mass.) / London, 2013. XVII,727p. Half cloth wrps. 'The Ancient Greek Hero in 24 Hours is Gregory Nagy's Mooc book. It was by listening to shared poems about gods and heroes that the Greeks felt united, even while they lived in independent city states and followed different ritual calendars. One of the greatest achievements of Nagy's research is that it powerfully illuminates the relationship between myth and cult. Readers will also learn the importance of close reading and the necessity of learning...
