Thrown together seemingly by chance after a tempestuous breakup, aristocrat Jon Macy, still haunted by his experience in the jungles of Vietnam, and Allison Young, a hard-driving real estate broker, begin their time together in London with a run through Hyde Park and witness a murder. Suddenly, everything changes. The dying words of the victim send Jon and Allison on a chilling adventure from the mountains of Wales to the remote Hebrides and beyond. Forced to survive only by their wits, they seek safety from their pursuers, who are determined to silence them at all costs. Will their fragile love, so recently renewed, survive the terror and violence? Will they?
