He left his homeland and set out for a new land promised to him by God. He has many ups and downs along the way, yet his faith is seen by many, including the Apostle Paul as an example to us all. As God's people today, we can journey with him, discovering sources of inspiration, encouragement and food for theological reflection. This book helps us to journey with Abraham and to also journey deeper with God. I commend it to individuals and to groups for their own journeying of faith. (The Rev d Dr. Ian McIntosh, Principal, Eastern Region Ministry Course) Are you looking for a fresh way of interacting with the Bible?
