The name of such member shall be referred to the Association in convention, for election by written or printed ballot, at any regular meeting of the Association, and five dissenting votes shall reject. Members Of Committee: American Railway Master Mechanics Association: D. F. Crawford, H. H. Vaughan, G. W. Wildin. Master Car Builders Association: F. H. Clark, W. A. Nettleton, C. A. Schroyer. The Secretary: I do not believe it is necessary, Mr. President, to read the Constitution. The President: I do not think it will be necessary to read the Constitution at this time. The arguments for and against consolidation have been presented, and I do not think it will be necessary at this time to read the Constitution and By-Laws offered, but later on, if you desire, that matter can be taken up. If there are no objections, then, the arguments submitted by the committee will be before the convention for discussion. The Secretary: The report is before the convention for discussion. Mr. Gaines: I make a motion that the report be accepted and referred to letter ballot. Mr. Fuller: I second the motion. The President: It is moved...
