Christ and Culture: The discipline required to overcome it and be Gods best The road to Success: Leaning and Trusting in God The road to success is not very well defined in life. Solomon rightfully put it this way: chance can happen to anyone, regardless of how unconventional his disposition is to success. Many people set off on that imaginary road in life, and sometimes get very disillusioned. What, then, is success Most people attribute it to wealth, and material things, and how much of it you accumulate. Others relatively deem themselves successful, if they enjoy some levels of comforts in life. Some yet relate success to all kinds of achievements in life. Some may be academic and others, discoveries of new knowledge that contributes favorably to their discipline, which ultimately benefit mankind. In my humble opinion, a successful person is anyone who leads a purpose driven life, which falls within the will of God for his life. God has a purpose and a duty for all men. Mother Theresa did not have much material wealth to her name, yet was one of the most successful and well...
