But He cares for everything that concerns her and is, even now, monitoring every aspect of her life. How do I know Because that little girl is me. The watercolor painting is a self-portrait based on a black-and-white department store photo from 1954. With the help of Delmarva Christian Writers Fellowship, I have compiled this family-friendly Christmas book, which contains a variety of stories, devotionals, poems, puzzles, and tidbits we trust will enhance your Christmas experience this year and for years...
