CARE MORE THAN US (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Care More Than Us is a conversation style read for young readers and teenagers alike, who may have trouble identifying how great they or their students and children already are. By readjusting what it means to be successful, Care More Than Us takes the readers through the process of learning to believe in themselves and avoiding the crowd that may distract them from reaching their goals. This guide to success will allow students to see that by caring more than adults do about their own futures, that they will be able to build a world where accomplishing goals is their main priority. Young people will read about what it means to become accountable for their actions, along with why never giving up will help them build life-long habits. Finally, readers will be able to refer back to the steps of achieving success where they will ultimately learn to love school and learning, over and over again. The tools for a successful journey are finally here! Learn how to care enough to change your life one day at a time.
