

Class, Bureaucracy and the Union-Form (Paperback)

By Michael Hough

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Abridged edition. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Class, Bureaucracy and the Union-Form is an exposition of the trade union question and its implications for Marxist theory. Five supplemental texts were written after the original text was completed in January 2016. Each supplement is nothing more than an elaboration and when taken together, they form a complete project. They are published in sequential order in this book: The Hoax of Business Unionism is an abridged history of the American labor movement and an attempt to euthanize the ideological narratives and theoretical devices (business unionism, One Big Unionism) which seek to liquidate this history. Trade Unionism from the Formal Subsumption of Labor to Proletarian Dictatorship is a condensed restatement of themes from Class, Bureaucracy and the Union-Form and The Hoax of Business Unionism but told through the complimentary conceptions of labor s class struggles of the founders of the American Federation of Labor and leading Bolsheviks following the consolidation of soviet power. Labor s Republic begins with the conception of the proletarian dictatorship from Class, Bureaucracy and the Union-Form and elaborates on the forms and processes which constitute the...
