Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Discover Bible based education. This comprehensive manual contains expert advice for new and veteran Christian educators and administrators that are interested in seeing transformation in their students. Topics include: spiritual formation, faith development, classroom management, parent-teacher relationships, differentiated instruction strategies, lesson planning, exceptional learners, and more. This book is a call to Christian parents and educators to intentionally cultivate potential within the next generation. It is a challenge to develop the students ability to know God and make him known. It is a tool and resource for developing programs of study that will engage students in the discovery and development of Bible truths, their gifts and calling through community service (including mission trips), and the development of leadership skills for the global marketplace. Christian educators will understand the impact that bible integrated subject matter, learning preferences, transformational teaching, learning and personality styles have upon a child s spiritual formation and faith development. The information will enhance instructional effectiveness and spiritual growth for both the child and teacher.
