Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The State College of Washington Library Bulletin, Vol. 6: August, 1918 This bibliography is the sixth of a series of library bulletins published by the library of the State College of Washington during the past two years. It is offered as a further contribution to the nation-wide movement for conservation of all national resources. Our food bibliography, issued last March, has been received so favorably throughout the country that we hope this also will be of service. The appointment of Mr. John W. Scott, Chief of the Textile Division, by the War Industries Board, brings this phase of conservation very prominently to public attention, and we believe many will be interested in having a carefully prepared bibliography on this subject. The list has been prepared by the College Library and the College of Home Economics in cooperation. We are indebted to Miss Agnes H. Craig, Head of the College of Home Economics, and Director of Home Economics for the State of Washington, U.S Food Administration, for the valuable introduction which should be carefully read by...

Reviews

This book is definitely not easy to get going on reading through but extremely exciting to see. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. I am pleased to explain how here is the finest book i actually have read inside my individual daily life and may be he best book for ever.

-- Mrs. Ellie Yost II

Good electronic book and useful one. It usually does not expense a lot of. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
