Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Mind Analogy A Positive Change- What a child doesn't understand as a child, can come back and hunt him as an adult by Johnny Lee Williams Jr. As a young man, Johnny Lee Williams Jr. had unresolved anger due to the absence of this father. His father passed away while he was a young boy. Due to this challenge at the age of 19, he became incarcerated for more than half his life. This incident allowed Johnny to grow by a magnitude of positive changes throughout the years. This collection of poetry stems from Johnny's re-evaluation of his life, after being incarcerated. One of his accomplishments while incarcerated, was teaching himself how to read, write, and fluently speak Spanish in various dialects. Some of Johnny's pieces are in both English Spanish. His pieces have a range of subjects. But the most important subject concerns how all his pain rooted from the absence of his late father. Johnny shares his realization that forced him to overcome heartache achieve goals, and nurture his manhood. These poems are perfect examples of how...
