Penguin Putnam Inc, United States, 1998. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Behold Acorna, the Unicorn Girl. Discovered as an infant and adopted by three gruff asteroid miners, she has now grown into a beautiful young woman with delicate ivory fur and silken skin, the tiny horn on her forehead all but hidden by her silvery locks. Acorna is known as Lukia of the Light by the grateful children she rescued from brutal slavery in the mines of Kezdet. She is helping them recover, and enjoying life with her guardian uncles, when she receives a mysterious and disturbing message: There are yet more children enslaved on Kezdet, overlooked by the Child Labor League - children suffering a cruel, almost unimaginable fate. Only Acorna, with her healing powers, can rescue them from the enigmatic figure known as The Dodger. But to save the children, she must deceive Pal Kendorno, the man she is beginning to love in spite of herself.
