Lake People and Other Speculative Tales (Paperback)

By Anna D Allen

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From a padded cell to Jacobean England to a distant planet, the fiction of award-winning writer Anna D. Allen is as eclectic as ever in this collection of short stories, Lake People and Other Speculative Tales. Bella would be a master mage, if only she could remember her vocabulary. On the planet Caledonia, little Ellie Fisher-Jones quickly discovers tree-climbing just isn't the same when the trees talk. What's a Horsewoman of the Apocalypse to do when she wearies of bloated babies? Go shopping, of course. In space, there are no rest stops. Sir Henry's collection of Egyptian antiquities is the finest in Europe. Now, if his granddaughter Beatrice would just stop raising the dead. Alison hears voices. Some people think that's a bad thing. The voices disagree. Thomas Reed just wanted to buy some land. He didn't intend for the village midwife to go up in flames in the process. The Natives say if suitable offerings are made, the Lake Spirits return what was lost to the waters. But Kate never lost anything. so what out on...
