I m able to speak and read a long-dead language. I have dreams that tend to come true. Oh, and I ve spent the last ten years as a prisoner in my own home. My father has people convinced I m dangerous, even though I ve never even remotely hurt someone. When he s asked to restore an ancient temple in the desert, I have to go along with him, just so he can make sure I don t break free of his grasp. That s when I found him. Zachary spent three hundred years locked inside a hidden, silver-lined chamber within the temple. Confusing me for someone he once knew, he stole me away to the island belonging to his coven. Despite feeling a strange pull toward him, and his promise that I was safe, I attempted to run.with disastrous results. Nothing will ever be the same. We soon discover that I m being hunted by the same vampires that locked Zachary away. What made me unusual before was just the tip of the iceberg. And if these vampires get me, the world will be in jeopardy.
