Regeneration (Classic Reprint)

By Thomas Hunt Morgan

Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 330 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Excerpt from Regeneration This volume is the outcome of a course of five lectures on Regeneration and Experimental Embryology, given in Columbia University in January, 1900. The subjects dealt with in the lectures are here more fully treated and are supplemented by the discussion of a number of related topics. During the last few years the problems connected with the regeneration of organisms have interested a large number of biologists, and much new work has been done in this field; especially in connection with the regenerative phenomena of the egg and early embryo. The development of isolated cells or blastomeres has, for instance, aroused widespread interest. It has become clearer, as new discoveries have been made, that the latter phenomena are only special cases of the general phenomena of regeneration in organisms, so that the results have been treated from this point of view in the present volume. If it should appear that at times I have gone out of my way to attack the hypothesis of preformed nuclear germs, and also the theory of natural selection as applied to regeneration, I trust..
