Helga saved for two years to come to this tropical island in search of adventure. She wants wild and crazy fun that she doesn't get and maybe can't risk at home. Helga wants her senses overwhelmed and to feel her body shift into sexual overload. But it isn't working. She took her vacation at the most affordable time, during the low season. Now she finds that the island is not just slow then, but nearly dead; she sees any chance to fulfill her fantasy dying with it. She tells her troubles to a woman she met, who introduces her to Roger. Roger understands exactly what kind of adventure she is looking for. He is happy to show such a sexy woman a side of the island that tourists seldom see and introduce her to people and customs that give her the memorable sexual experience she desperately wants.
