Excerpt from Oversight Hearing on Department of Energy: Hearing Before the Military Procurement Subcommittee of the Committee on National Security, House of Representatives, One Hundred Fourth Congress, Second Session; Hearing Held September 19, 1996 Think about this for a minute. North Korea achieved a nuclear capability without conducting a test, and Iraq never tested but was within months of producing a nuclear bomb. A Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty [ctbt] will, however, prohibit the United States from undertaking a limited test program even if such tests are intended to fix the safety problem on a given weapon design.
