Christian fiction(c) Excerpt Reprinted by Permission. All Rights Reserved. Chapter 1 Carson squinted as he turned into the country lane, the rays of the sun reflecting off his Volvos platinum hood. He moved his sunglasses from his head to his eyes, quickly putting an end to his momentary blindness. The second he spotted the farmhouse, a smile danced on his lips. Just as hed thought, his beautiful wife, Elisabeth, had come out to greet him, their two oldest children stationed at each leg. The minute he stepped out of the vehicle, their oldest son was tugging on his pant leg. Daddy, Daddy! Carson shifted his gaze from his wife to his son. What are you so excited about, Lincoln Mommy showed...
