Sean Proper, the youngest principal ever to head the renowned Kensington Academy, knows he's smart and driven to succeed, but he has no idea he's also living proof that miracles do happen. Unaware of the truth, he can't foresee how radically his life will be altered by his introduction to Prim Aurora, a businesswoman whose past is shrouded in mystery. Each having extremely different and unusual upbringings, neither Sean nor Prim ever intend to become seriously involved in any romantic relationship. Prim's inexplicable fears, Sean's need to be in control, and the appearance of a dead body in the Aurora family home will test the passion and love between them. As their relationship is jeopardized by past events and a killer still on the loose, their determination and commitment to their dream of a life spent together is threatened. Only elusive revelations regarding the secrets in Prim's past and the circumstances relating to the miracle surrounding Sean's birth can provide Prim and Proper with the promise of a happy future.
