

Writing under Pressure: The Quick Writing Process

By Coordinator and Consultant Mid-Career Writing Program Sanford Kaye

Oxford University Press Inc, United States, 1990. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 201 x 135 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Most writing is done under pressure. An executive has to produce a three-page position paper by tomorrow at nine. A department head suddenly has to write a one-page action memo by noon. A graduate student has a twenty-page research paper due in a week. Yet, while most students and professionals write under pressure-with limited time, limited space, and a supervisor or instructor to please-few approach the task systematically. In Writing Under Pressure, Sanford Kaye, a renowned expert on the subject, presents a system he calls the Quick Writing Process (QWP) that focuses on real-world writing tasks and demonstrates how to produce the clearest, most honest, most powerful work possible under the constraints of time and space. A writing instructor with twenty-five years experience teaching students and professionals in business and government, Kaye tells writers how to budget their time and how to use this time efficiently. Exploring particular writing situations in which QWP can be applied to make the most of what the writer knows, Kaye discusses the process of taking exams, focusing on...
