Excerpt: .from yon distant Shore of Shade Should come and say, Long time thou here hast stayed, Away with me to-night! And far beyond the sight Of men should waft me out upon the sea, --Oh! say, what would the written record be, If I should die to-night 1 No terror would affright, No quailing at the billows ceaseless boom; No boding fear of boundless, rayless gloom, And chill and damp of night. But when the last warm light Of life, a burned-out candle s glow, Shines o er the fledted years, what would it show, If I should die to-night 1 Pale, tearful Sorrow s blight. As frost in June upon the tender flowers, Full oft descends to pierce these hearts of ours And turn our day to night; Then when all s still and white, From out his humble place will one draw...

Here is the finest publication we have read right up until now. It is actually writter in easy words instead of difficult to understand. Its been written in an remarkably easy way in fact it is only right after i finished reading this book in which basically changed me, modify the way i really believe.
