Barbara F. Vucanovich: From Nevada To Congress, And Back Again.

By Vucanovich, Barbara F.; Cafferata, Patricia D.

University of Nevada Press, Reno, 2014. Softcover. Condition: New. 328 pages. Softcover. New book. NEVADA. When Reno Republican Barbara Vucanovich was elected to Congress in 1982, she became the first Nevada woman ever elected to a federal office. Campaigning as a "tough grandmother," she distinguished herself during her fourteen-year service in the U.S. House of Representatives by her indefatigable efforts on behalf of her state and her commitment to the conservative ideals of her party. In this engaging, richly informative memoir, Vucanovich reflects on her political career and the long road that led to it—her years as mother of a growing family, businesswoman, community and Republican Party volunteer, and her introduction to politics as the Northern Nevada manager of several of Paul Laxalt's campaigns. Encouraged by Laxalt to run for Nevada's new congressional seat, she became a sixty-one-year-old first-time political candidate. This book offers any reader, of whatever political persuasion, an exceptionally vivid account of politics on both the state and national levels during a notably turbulent era. Barbara F. Vucanovich (1921-2013) was the first woman to be elected to a federal office from Nevada. She was the first Representative for Nevada's 2nd Congressional District, and as Republican Conference Secretary...

Reviews

It is in a single of the most popular ebook. It really is simplified but excitement in the fifty percent from the pdf. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Joy Langosh

This ebook is fantastic. It is actually written in straightforward terms rather than hard to understand. It has been designed in an extremely straightforward way and it is merely soon after I finished reading through this ebook through which in fact modified me, alter the way I really believe.
