In some of these domains, people interact with the computers using a mouse, keyboard and a 17-inch monitor, but present-day inter- faces take a variety of forms, including motion- capture technology and displays of up to several metres in height and width. The trend of applying computer technologies in the domain of art and culture has been one of the pivots of a Danish research project, Staging of Virtual Inhabited 3D Spaces. The results of the project are presented in a series of four volumes, of which this book is the last one. The three other publications are: Virtual Interaction: Interaction...
