Excerpt: . . . to a little distance, with the greatest alarm and sympathy depicted on his countenance. If you can hail Ned Cuttle with a finger, do it! But Florence did not stir. My Hearts Delight! said the trembling Captain. For the sake of Walr drowned in the briny deep, turn to, and histe up something or another, if able! F Finding her insensible to this impressive adjuration also, Captain Cuttle snatched from his breakfast-table, a basin of cold water, and sprinkled some upon her face. Yielding to the urgency of the case, the Captain then, using his immense hand with extraordinary gentleness relieved her of her bonnet, moistened her lips and forehead, . put back her hair, covered her feet with his own coat which he pulled off for the purpose, patted her hand---so small in his, that he was struck with wonder when he touched it--and...
