Excerpt from Abraham Lincoln: A Memorial This memorial was prepared and delivered at the City of Pekin, February 12, 1909, on the occasion of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, celebrated by Joe Hanna Post of the Grand Army of the Republic. It was then substantially in its present form. Its preparation and delivery was a labor of love, expended for those who love Liberty. In this crisis of the world's history, this awful cataclysm between autocratic power and democracy. It is rededicated by its author, gladly and freely to that Christian statesman of the Kingdom, John R. Mott, and the war work council of the Young Men's Christian Association, who are so bravely and valiantly carrying the work of the Good Samaritan beneath the smoke of battle, in the trenches and on the shining decks of the navies of the world, with the hope that this little book may go wherever the red triangle goes, and that the spirit of the Great Emancipator may help a little to make the world safer for the lovers of liberty.
