Harris Chappell, A. M., Ph.D: Delivered Before the Graduating Classes of the Georgia Normal and Industrial College, Milledgeville, Ga.; For the Years 1891-1904, Inclusive The speeches included in this volume are the baccalaureate addresses of President J. Harris Chappell, before the graduating classes of the Georgia Normal and Industrial College, for the years 1891-1904, inclusive. Probably no man has more deeply influenced the character of the young womanhood of the State than has Dr. Chappell. For thirty-one years a teacher, he has touched hundreds of young lives, and by his earnest, faithful labors, his sympathetic interest, and his high ideal of womanhood, he has exerted a mighty power for good. In addition to his personal intercourse he has been, through his lectures and addresses, a source of inspiration to many who have never been brought into intimate relation with him, for he possesses the rare and beautiful gift of eloquence, and that grace and charm of manner that carries his audience with him, making it think as he thinks and...
