FIVE MINUTES TO IMPACT: THE FINAL FLIGHT OF THE COMANCHE

Ambassador International. Hardcover. Condition: New. 160 pages. Kansas City Center Comanche eight-five-four-six-papa we have an emergency. With these words, David F. Osborne alerted air traffic controllers his plane and passengers were in serious danger. What began as a normal business trip home from North Dakota turned, without warning, from tranquility to turmoil. In the darkness of night, the once-powerful, single engine, Piper Comanche 260 airplane began experiencing catastrophic engine failure. Within seconds, the previously well-tuned aircraft was shaking violently putting the plane in a rapid descent while the cockpit was quickly filling with thick smoke. With an emergency crash landing now imminent, the gripping realization that the pilot and his passengers faced almost certain death had become undeniable reality. Five Minutes to Impact is a true story of overcoming fear in the face of unexpected crisis, understanding the providence of God in the dealings of man, and renewing our faith in His divine plan for our lives. Endorsements David Osborne is a true business entrepreneur. He is a value-based businessman. David is also a skillful, experienced private airplane pilot. This is the story of a pilots worst fears lived out! As a private pilot myself, I caught myself mentally following the story . . . a story of a miracle landing on a dark night with seemingly nowhere to land. Dave tells the story from his perspective a faith-based worldview intertwined in every aspect of his life. Im sure that you, like me, will not be able to put down this incredible story. If you know a pilot, give this book to her or him for an inspirational experience. Lauren Libby, International PresidentCEO, TWR International I have known David Osborne for over thirty years. Hes meticulous and careful in every part of life. As a pilot, he used those skills...
