Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Pisces are looking for excitement in 2017; real life can seem rather drab and you will crave both escapism and colour in your life. Your indulgence in arts, drama, music and the creative arts often provides this entry into a world of glamour. You will look to be transported away from yourself and into a world where you can experience things that you would never usually experience. It can be a year of experiences that sweep you off your feet: a whirl wind romance, a unique travel opportunity, working with creative people on an important project or involvement in a movement which could have deep national or even international significance. Travelling with others to pursue joint interests is an important part of this year - the enjoyment in any moment is enhanced and magnified when shared. This is not a year to follow rules and to try desperately hard to be organised and systematic, it is a year to adapt and go with the flow, letting life take you on a magical mystery tour. While old ties are broken, new roots have not yet been set down and you feel in in state of flux and while this can be disconcerting; it is also inspiring as you feel that there is great potential there waiting to be tapped. The way forward is not obvious it must be taken step by step and with patience. Leadership for Pisces in 2017 is about seeing the future and selling that vision to those who have the practical skills to make it work. This is a consciousness and awareness expanding year of potential, possibilities and often mystery - but then life is the...
