Hinton What is the Fourth Dimension WHERE the suns rays grazing the earth in January pass off and merge into darkness lies a strange world. Tis a vast bubble blown in a substance something like glass, but harder far and untransparent. And just as a bubble blown by us consists of a distended film, so this bubble, vast beyond comparison, consists of a film distended and coherent. On its surface in the course of ages has fallen a thin layer of space dust, and so smooth is this surface that the dust slips over it to and fro and forms densities and clusters as its own attractions and movements determine. The dust is kept on the polished surface by the attraction of the vast film; but, except for that, it moves on it freely in every direction. And here and there are condensations wherein have fallen together numbers of these floating masses, and where the dust condensing for ages has formed vast disks. And these disks are glowing hot--yet no light comes from them into our universe. For this world lies beyond the aether--far beyond. And however hot or glowing the masses are, if there is no medium to transmit the vibrations of heat the influence cannot travel. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
