Hodder & Stoughton, UK, 1990. Hardcover. Condition: New. The titles in the "Textplus" series, designed to reflect the changing nature of English Literature at advanced post-GCSE level, offer the complete text with a specially commissioned introduction and compact background notes placing the work in historical and critical context. Together, these components are intended to open up the text for students, allowing them to plot their own course of study, to plan extended projects, to compare writers' perspectives on similar themes and to relate works to key social and historical phenomena. Review: 'As powerful a condemnation of imperialism as has ever been written' --The Observer 'Once experienced, it is hard to let Heart of Darkness go. A masterpiece of surprise, of expression and psychological nuance, of fury at colonial expansion and of how men make the least of life. endlessly readable and worthy of rereading' --The Telegraph.
