Litfire Publishing, LLC, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The book you hold in your hands tells the remarkable story of one woman s journey from a diagnosis of irreversible brain damage-that would leave her with an 8th grade IQ- to her stunning and unexpected recovery from both physical and mental deterioration. In spite of the opinions of experts who claimed she would never return from such a prognosis, she did rebound, accompanied by a radical life change which led her to become a holistic health practitioner-a board-certified Naturopath and Nutritionist, with the added bonus of finding her life s calling by improving the health and the quality of others lives. Her story is an inspiring account that carries a message of hope for all who seek to achieve wellness and healing in their own physical, mental, and spiritual lives. Sherin Lee s story will provide you with inspiration and hope as you follow her on your own health journey. Lee is a firm believer that we shall lay witness to many cures that the medical sciences of today.claim impossible. This book encourages everyone s belief that in life, in YOUR life, all things are possible to he who believes and it all begins with hope. And anything can happen when one has hope. If you have been keeping company with your enemy called FEAR---command it to leave!.
