Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Transactions and Proceedings, 1904 Eighth Meeting of the National Association of State Universities, St. Louis, Mo., June 27-28, 1904 The National Association of State Universities met in its eighth annual session at St. Louis, June 27, 1904, at 11 o'clock A. M., in Room 1, Hall of Congresses. There were present: George E. MacLean, President University of Iowa, Iowa City. R. H. Jesse, President University of Missouri, Columbia. James H. Baker, President University of Colorado, Boulder. R. B. Fulton, Chancellor University of Mississippi, University. George E. Fellows, President University of Maine, Orono. William L. Prather, President University of Texas, Austin. Joseph Swain, President Swarthmore College, Swarthmore. Professor Harris of Washington University, St. Louis, Mo. Professor Ellis of the University of Texas, Austin. After the opening remarks by President MacLean, it was voted that the address by Chancellor Fulton of the University of Mississippi, which was placed on the program for the morning of June 27, should be deferred to the occasion of State University Day, June 28. The topics were taken up from the program in order. The first topic was opened by President Prather of Texas, The Relation of the State University to the State. The sessions were continued in the afternoon and evening, in one of the parlors of the Inside Inn, and the program was taken up in order, the discussions being informal. The second topic on the program was introduced by President MacLean of Iowa, and further discussed by most of the members present.
