Alana s world is changing and she is faced with a war in Middle-earth, her father s revenge, her brother s scorn and an attack by cigar shaped objects from above. Things come to a climax when she saves Dramedia from destruction, her White Witch coven kill the demons that have plagued Ingurd s army, and the lights from above which eliminate the vampires in the mountains. So they think! As time passes, Alana discovers her real identity with with the help of Adella and the owl given to her by her real father. Prince Airell and Princess Alastrina are born. Queen Alana must settle down to a normal life in Middle-earth. The Book of Secrets has been given to Alana so she may teach the Anunnaki children about their home on the planet Nibiru, and the history of their people. Secrets of the universe must also be taught to these children so they may share the secret science of their home planet to the people of Earth. With Ingurd, the witches of Elritch and the white owl joining her, the Anunnaki school is ready to open. They have finally found their true purpose and a home they can spread the knowledge of the Anunnaki people.
