Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Nobody s: A Novel Lowndesville - all out! cried the conductor, as he leaned in at the doorway of the dusty car. The brakes were creaking, the trucks jerking, and the short train was slowing up at a dismal-looking station on the right. Gordon Hartley hastily took down his valise, umbrella, and light overcoat from the rack above his seat and proceeded to change his smoking-cap for his hat. I didn t know we were so near, he apologized to the genial conductor, who had now advanced to him. I thought Lowndesville was a considerable place, but I don t see a single residence. The town lies a mile to the west, the man explained. A little bobtail, one-horse street-car runs down here to take passengers up to the Square. Spite work, sir - spite work! When our road was being run through, and all other places on the line granted free right of way, Lowndesville wouldn t stir a peg.
