Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from St. Louis Catholic Historical Review, Vol. 3 Perhaps of all the charitable organizations of to-day none is so well known and so widespread as that of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Founded upon principles of charity laid down by the illustrious Saint whose name it bears, as a kind messenger, it has brought and is still bringing help and succor to the needy of every color and creed throughout the world. Far back in the sixteenth century there was born in Pouy, Gascony, France, Vincent de Paul, whose charity and love of the poor has counfounded the world. Led on by a true love of God which is best evinced in the love of neighbor, he devoted his best endeavors to the service of the needy and the afflicted. Calling about him bands of noble men and women he formed them into Conferences and, through them, collected and distributed the necessaries of life to the starving thousands of Paris and its surrounding regions. It is his principles and spirit that have guided the Catholic Charities since his time. It was not, however, until May, 1833, that the organization that bears the name of St. Vincent de Paul was founded and elevated to its present high standing and efficiency. Frederick Ozanam, a brilliant young lawyer and author in Paris, called about him seven of his youthful companions and formulated plans for the organization of a society whose object should be to administer to the wants of the poor and thereby answer the taunts of an irreligious world which was proclaiming the death of the Christian spirit of charity. The rules then formulated upon the principles of St. Vincent are those...
