Unjustly Accused: The True Story of One Man s Experience In, and Escape From, a Dominican Republic Prison (Paperback)

By Susan L Stewart

Take Flight Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. When Corey and Jeff, a friend from work, decide to go to the Dominican Republic, they have no idea of what is waiting for them. Someone they know recommends Diego, a local who speaks English, to be their taxi driver and tour guide. On their second day, Diego takes them on a rambling ride through the capital city of Santo Domingo. They are on an eight-lane bridge filled with cars crawling along in both directions when two men on a moped dressed in plain-clothes pull them over in an attempted car jacking. Things only get worse when the uniformed police arrive and want to know what is going on. The carjackers pull out baseball caps with Policia across the front. Even though there is no physical evidence and their rights were trampled on, within a week, all three of them are arrested, charged with drug trafficking and sentenced to one-to-three years in Nayajo, the Dominican Republic s second largest prison. The fact that Corey and Jeff are innocent means nothing to the corrupt legal system. Corey tells his story as he battles...
