Excerpt: . . . ing by most accounts, I would like to hear about the status of these efforts as they now stand. I am also increasingly concerned about the security of the cockpits on passenger airplanes, so much that I recently introduced a bill, S. 2497, which will require that cockpit doors remain closed while in flight unless the plane is fitted with mantrap doors which provide secure entrance and exit for the flight deck. These concerns are just the tip of the iceberg. I realize the enormity of your task. You can not fail. You must continue to work with us about your thoughts, your concerns, and your needs. The challenge remains to develop a system of security which considers all potential targets, recognizes every potential threat, and justifiably restores the confidence of the American people. We continue to expect this challenge to be met. Finally, I have been reading with keen interest about the lack of coordination between the intelligence agencies. In the Security Act, we specifically included all of these groups so that you had the best information available. If you have any problems, please, I urge you to let us know. STATEMENT OF HON. CONRAD BURNS, U. S. SENATOR FROM MONTANA Senator Burns. Mr. Chairman, I do not have a statement to be filed. The Chairman. Do you want me to make one for you Senator Burns. That sounds like being the auctioneer, and you sell some of the sales, and the buyers and the bidders are a little bit draggy. I offered to handle their bid for them. I would go much...
