How to Experience God There are some who say that Buddhism lacks God. That only the Buddha (the first teacher) is venerated. I believe that this idea comes from a gap in cultures and languages. In this book, I hope to give Westerners clear methods to practice in order to experience God. With dedicated practice, there will undoubtedly come a time where you will clearly feel the loving, protective presence of God. This experience cannot correctly be put into words or intellectualized; it can only be realized as a result of regular practice.
