Excerpt from Transaction of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of the State of Maryland: Semi-Annual Session, Held at Hagerstown, MD., Nov., 1889; Ninety-Second Annual Session, Held at Baltimore, MD., April, 1890 They demonstrated by the local Medical Societies which they had organized and the successful career upon which these had entered, that the profession had been strengthened by a goodly number of new recruits of whom good work could be expected in the future The veterans of the Medi cal and Chirurgical Faculty of that time. Did not fail to recognize this. When they looked upon this band of active, earnest, able and enthusiastic young physicians, who had already done themselves so much credit, new hope revived in them as to the future of their time honored State Society. They met their young brethren in all frankness, and confessed that they were no longer able to bear the burdens of the Faculty alone, and appealed to them for their fellowship. This appeal met with a prompt and warm response, and from that time up to this hour, a period of over nineteen years the history of the Faculty has been one of uninterrupted prosperity. The transactions which have been regulfrly published fully testify to the Valuable work that has been done at the annual meetings. The library has been made a chief feature in the attractions of the Faculty, embracing not only a very large number of standard medical books, but also a large number of foreign and American journals. The membership has increased from year to year, and so has the number of those who are willing to do work. So that four or five days of the annual meetings hardly su?ice...
