What We See: Advancing the Observations of Jane Jacobs (Hardback)

By -

New Village Press, United States, 2010. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. A timely revisitation of renowned urbanist-activist Jane Jacobs lifework, What We See invites thirty pundits and practitioners across fields to refresh Jacobs economic, social and urban planning theories for the present day. Combining personal and professional observations with meditations on Jacobs insights, essayists bring their diverse experience to bear to sketch the blueprints for the living city. The book models itself after Jacobs collaborative approach to city and community building, asking community members and niche specialists to share their knowledge with a broader community, to work together toward a common goal of building the 21st-century city. The resulting collection of original essays expounds and expands Jacobs ideas on the qualities of a vibrant, robust urban area. It offers the generalist, the activist, and the urban planner practical examples of the benefits of planning that encourages community participation, pedestrianism, diversity, environmental responsibility, and self-sufficiency. Bob Sirman, director of the Canada Council for the Arts, describes how built form should be an embodiment of a community narrative. Daniel Kemmis, former Mayor of Missoula, shares an imagined dialog with Jacobs, discussing the delicate interconnection between cities and their...
