Editions universitaires europeennes EUE, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Aufl.. Language: French . Brand New Book. À cheval entre l'urbain et le rural, l'espace périurbain est souvent assimilé à l'un ou l'autre espace. Pourtant, sa dynamique obéit à une logique qui lui est propre et dont le livre est susceptible d'apporter une contribution importante à l'aménagement du territoire. Le terroir rural de Malo Gaga, localisé entre les villes de N'Djaména et Koundoul au Tchad, se trouve confronté à un problème d'inadaptation de son espace et de sa société aux nouvelles exigences imposées par ces villes. Les principaux processus de transformation spatiale de ce terroir sont l'étalement urbain de N'Djaména et l'urbanisation de Koundoul, dus à la décentralisation. Ils sont renforcés par d'autres micro processus additionnels. Les conséquences sur le terroir se traduisent par la mutation du paysage et de l'identité spatiale, l'émergence de nouvelles formes de relations avec les espaces environnants, la survenance des conflits d'exploitation des ressources naturelles et le changement progressif du mode de vie des habitants. En soulevant un débat sur la rentabilité du tiers espace dans l'étude des dynamiques périurbaines, ce travail intéresse les scientifiques, les décideurs et les collectivités.
