TITLE DESCRIPTION The Journey of a Mermaid - a tale of love, acceptance and humanity is a short fiction packed with lively humor. It is a must read for any age group and for so many reasons. It brings together our imagination and reality in a simple story that everyone can relate to. It is all about the amazing water goddess about whom people of all ages and background, the world over, have a concept! In African mythology there is a mermaid goddess called Mami Wata .The myth of this water goddess is one of the most popular in Western and Central Africa. Mami Wata is described as the more than beautiful woman. Her beauty is so extreme it is supernatural. Often she is shown with a snake coiled around her waist, its head between her breasts. Her hair is black and straight and her skin is fair; both are rather unusual traits in African mythology.
