Westminster, Maryland, U.S.A.: Alfred a Knopf Inc, Westminster, Maryland, U.S.A., 2004. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. From the Back Cover: "Compelling . . . a passionate cry from the heart." --USA Today A ripped-from-the-headlines docudrama for the printed page, a timely and tense screed for a divided country hurtling toward who knows where. --Associated Press "Checkpoint is about limits - of presidential power, of law, of discourse, of rationality, and of language itself." --Boston Phoenix "Sly, slender but important . . . Baker excels at writing about those facets of the human experience we prefer to hide." --David Kipen, San Francisco Chronicle "This novel could be a kind of record of our times. . . . Its goal is to take [the] internal combustion process of hatred and anger and make it visible--which Baker does brilliantly." --Pittsburgh Post-Gazette "Baker's new novel checks its inhibitions at the door . . . entertaining, edgy and unpredictable." --Las Vegas City Life If one of our supreme chroniclers of mild manners can be roused to such patriotic indignation, democracy yet has a fighting chance. --LA Weekly "On the whole, Baker improves upon Samuel Beckett's [Godot]. Baker's jokes will make people, rather than theatre majors, laugh." --P. J. O'Rourke, Los Angeles Times "An astonishing, uncomfortable conversation. Baker has a real ear for the cadence and wryness of the modern intelligentsia." --Portland Oregonian Checkpoint is like a hornet: Its small, quiet, with a sinister aspect to its midday peregrinations, and it has a stinger: conscience. --Toronto Globe and Mail "High humor, ghastly seriousness." Kirkus (starred review) About the Author: Nicholson Baker was born in 1957 and attended the Eastman School of Music and Haverford College. He has published six previous novels and three works of nonfiction, including Double Fold, which won a National...
