Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In 1955 a wide-eyed Italian child glanced up at the largest ship she had ever seen. In a few hours, she and her immigrant family would leave the Old World on a long cross-Atlantic voyage to the famous lady whose welcoming arms graced New York City s harbor. Before leaving the ship hundreds of hopefuls clung to their dreams while exchanging their cultures--and identities, to a land world famous for its opportunities. Clutching her mother s hand, the small girl remembered little of the day s events except for the customs official who dismissively tossed aside her Italian name for a strange sounding American one. But a person s name is important--a key marker on the journey to self-awareness. It frames the me inside--or in Italian, the io within. The quest to find her io would take many years, miles, and tears until the adult woman found wholeness through an extraordinary encounter!.
