The Architecture of Alfred Browning Parker: Miami's Maverick Modernist (Hardback)

---

By Randolph C. Henning

University Press of Florida, United States, 2011. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The first authorized examination of a twentieth-century architectural giant A comprehensive survey of one of Florida's most prolific and influential architects of the mid-twentieth century. In an era when we seek resiliency in design and building, there are lessons to be learned in the work of Alfred Browning Parker, a subtropical master. Anthony Abbate, AIA, and contributor to Miami Modern Metropolis Alfred Browning Parker (b. 1916) is one of the twentieth century's most famous Florida-based architects. A principal leader of the Coconut Grove School of tropical organic architecture, he is arguably the most renowned and honored architect in the history of Florida architecture, and his influence has been felt throughout the United States and the Caribbean. Attaining an almost rock star like status in his home city of Miami, Parker was publicly praised by Frank Lloyd Wright, something Wright rarely did. Parker's work and philosophy has had an ecological and environmental basis since the early 1940s. He began expressing an interest in alternative fossil fuels and renewable energy sources in the 1970s, far ahead of the current trends in green and energy-conscious architecture....
